FULTON IS LUCKY TO GET A MATCH WITH WILLARD FOR SUMMER BOUT

Manager Mike Collins Worked Tremendously to Line Up the Willard Management For Match But Failed Until Movie Magnates Came Along and Offered to Provide Big Purse F or an Open Air Event.

By T. S. ANDREWS.

Mike Collins, guide for Fred Mike Collins, guide for Fred Fulton, the Rochester giant, may not be the best known manager of bexers in the business, but he slipped one over on Frank Moran when he induced Tem Jones, manurer of Jess Willard, to sign up for a match next fall, either a ten round affair of a championship contest.

Collins went about his work quietly. He chared Jones through lows and Kunsus, finally landing him for a conference at Kansas City, Willard and Jones would not listen to a match at the time and Collins went back to his home in Hudson, Wis, He stopped in St. Paul, en rouse home and while there bumped into some movie mas.

Sydney promotor says: "It is too bad that Watson has not taken better care of himself, for he might have done in huse all sides. He was matched at the Stadium with Nicol Simpson, but was disqualified in the third round and has been barred by the Stadium management."

K. O. Brown, the Chicago Greek, met Darcy in a second match, and while he put up a spiendid contest, the Australian defeated him on points. The champion was not at his best, having for a better this sethack, he defeated Brown fairly, as the Chicago boy admitted to all after the contest.

Brown made quite a hit over here and hus been a big favorite with the funs because of his constant efforts to do something.

"BECK'S" AMEN CORNER

BILLY M'CARNEY, who "retired" from the boxing game following the death of Luther McCarty, for whom he was manager, but who couldn't keep away from the roped arena, is one of the promoters of the Memorial day bout at Albuquerque between Jack Torres and Jimmy Conners. Billy is a hustler from the ground up and if any one can wake up the sleepy sports of the northern town, Billy will do it.

BENNY CORDOVA is to take part D in the Memorial day card at Albuquerque but Benny is making a slight mistake when he gives it out that he "decisively defeated" Bobby Waugh five times. They have met five times and the only bout of which the writer has personal knowledge was the clash at Albuquerque last fall. However, on that occasion, Benny didn't win. The decision was a draw and it was all Cordova was BOXING fans will have something to affract them to the Texas-Grand theater on Saturday night. The card for the newsboy benefit looks to be real classy. With a fine mixture of both amateurs and professional mitt flingers on the bill, there should be some good milling. ONE of the best busher yarns from the spring training camps of the big league ball teams concerns a big fellow who had never before seen a joined him in the washroom after his first night in a berth, he was chuckling with glee and said: "When I wuz ersleep in that there bunk, some guy got up to shine his shoes and shined mine." DLAYERS of the Seventh infantry baseball team assert that they are "out to do or die" in next Sunday's Commercial lesgue games and if the soldiers don't break back into the win column it won't be because of lack of endeavor on the part of the players.

T'HAT Mike Gibbons, despite a tenpound advantage in weight, didn't have a clear-cut margin over Ted Lewis in their recent New York bout is evident from the comment of R. L. Goldberg in the New York Mail. He says: "Gibbons's margin over Lewis was so slight and his reluctance to lead so pronounced that it would hardly be fair to put the bout away in the pugilistic archives as a victory for Gibbons. A draw seems most reasonable."

CONNIE MACK has his youngsters traveling at a hot pace and they are n / winning their fair share of games. One El Paso broker, a couple of weeks ago, made a big bet at long odds that the Athletics will cop the pennant in the American league this year. At the time, the bet looked foolish but now we are inclined to think that the broker "knew something." The chances of copping the pennant certainly look brighter now than they did three weeks ago, DON'T it make you smile to hear about the trimmings being handed to the "bookies" at Tis Juana? It all goes to prove that you can't win all the time.

DFEFFER, the Brooklyn pitcher, was looked upon as a "hasbeen" in the spring but his feat of holding the Pirates to two hits and a whitewash on Tuesday makes it evident that he is going in the form he showed for a time last season and if he can continue in anything like that form, the hig fellow will be a wonderful help to the Dodgers this season. By the way, the Robins look pretty much like pennant contenders this year, don't you think?

WHEN a horse shows a sudden re-W versal of form, the fans begin to wonder what kind of dope was used. But when a baseball club suddenly "hits its stride" and takes a dozen straight games, we know that it is merely a case of the players gaining confidence in themselves and playing their best. Will the Gianta "crack"? Giant fans say they won't. The team certainly is traveling fast but an early season spurt doesn't always mean a pennant.

HOWARD RIX has resigned as manager of the Feldmans and F. D. French takes his place as leader of the photographers. The fans will regret the action of Rix for he was one of the most popular managers in the circuit. However, there is a chance that Howard will be found at short for the new manager. French has had considerable experience with semi-pro, clubs and if he can get the Feldmans to develop team play, the team will get into the pennant race even at this late date.

league and recently was made pilot of the club. The Delehantys climbed from the bottom rung to the top in the national frazzy and have just about reached the bottom again.

Harry Gardner, who was released by the Blues this spring to Lincoln, landed in the Western league with considerable splash. In his first game he held Omaha to a trio of hits and won early.

More hard luck for Frank Chance. Just when the peerless leader begins enjoying himself after getting away from those violent headaches by getting himself after getting away from those violent headaches by getting himself after getting away from those violent headaches by getting his skull fixed, he brake his neek, or very near that. Becently at Los Auxeles, which club he is managing, he binniped into a low doorway in the club house and his neck struck the door. Torres Fights Conners; Co. dova Meets George; Riv. ers and Kline Fight.

Albuquerque, N. M., May 22.-Th. biggest boxing bout staged in this state for some time will be put on at Armory hall, this city, the afternoon of Memorial day, May 30. The promoters of the big event are Louis Newmen and Billy McCarney. For the main event they have signed Jank Torres, the New Mexican welterweight, and his rival, Jimmy Conners, of New York They will fight ten rounds at 165

The one black mark on the record, The one black murk on the recent of Torres was the defeat administered by Art Magici, at Colorado Springa last week. Magici outweighed Torres fully To pounds, which accounts for his winning, the weight and punching power of Magici being too much of a handleap. This is the only battle Torres has lost since he started his climb towards the welterweight championship and will not effect his getting the chance at the championship and will not effect his getting the chance at the championship, as Billy McCarney, who is promoting the bout between Torres and Counces has promised the winner a chance against Jack Britton at Kansas Clofor the coveted title.

That Jimmy Conners is a worthy opponent for Torres is best understood when it is known be has two wins over Magici, one of them accored last February. Conners are Magici his big weight handleap and beat him the both times they met and he accomplished the feats right in cities where Magici was a pronounced favorite. Enid and Bartlesville, Okishoma. The fact that Conners thought well enough of his bout with Torres to come to Albuquerque ten days ahead of the fight to properly prepare himself, is sufficient guarantee that he will be in the best of shape and ready to put up the fight of his career. of Torres was the defeat administered
